MGEX Reports 7th-Best Volume Month

MINNEAPOLIS – MGEX, a Designated Contract Market (DCM) and Derivatives Clearing Organization (DCO), reports its 7th-highest total volume month, coming in at 225,377 contracts traded.

Total volume from November concluded at high numbers once again, falling short of the highest all-time record set in November 2015 which was 272,202. This marks only the second time that volume has surpassed 200,000 during the month of November. Additionally, the Exchange has reported a total volume greater than 200,000 for five months during the calendar year.

The Exchange also concluded the month with its 10th-highest electronic volume, closing in at 195,715 contracts traded.

Calendar year volume now stands at 2,051,490 with one month remaining. Open interest following Wednesday's activity was 63,720.
