Nothing, however, herein contained shall in any way be construed as superseding the duties and authority that have been vested in the Board of Directors by the Bylaws or MGEX Rules. (See Bylaws 264.01. and 265.01.)

- A. Definitions. For purposes of this Bylaw the following definitions shall apply:
1. The term "family relationship" of a person shall mean the person's spouse, former spouse, parent, stepparent, child, stepchild, sibling, stepbrother, stepsister, grandparent, grandchild, uncle, aunt, nephew, niece, or in-law.

  3. The term "member's affiliated firm" shall mean a firm in which the member is an employee or a "principal," as defined in CFTC Regulation 3.1(a).
  4. The term "named party in interest" shall mean a person or entity that is identified by name as a primary subject of any material matter being considered by a governing board.

B. Named Party in Interest Conflict

1. Prohibition. No member of a governing board shall knowingly participate in such body’s deliberations or voting in any matter involving a named party in interest where such member: (a) is a named party in interest; (b) is an employer, employee or fellow employee of a named party in interest; (c) is associated with a named party in interest through a broker association; (d) has a family relationship with a named party in interest; or, (e) has any other significant, ongoing business relationship with a named party in interest, excluding relationships limited to executing futures or option transactions opposite each other or to clearing futures or options transactions through the same Clearing Member.

If the member’s only relationship with a named party in interest is through a broker association not established for the purpose of sharing profits and losses as described by Regulation 2065.00.A.3, then the prohibition shall not apply. Furthermore, if a named party in interest is one or part of a group of similar persons or entities that is the subject for general deliberation and voting, such as approval for regularity or membership, and there is no material issue of dispute involving a named party in interest, then the prohibition shall not apply.

2. Disclosure. Prior to consideration of any matter involving a named party in interest, each member of the deliberating body who does not choose to abstain from deliberations and voting shall disclose to the Department of Audits and Investigations whether such member has one of the relationships listed in paragraph B.1. of this Bylaw with a named party in interest.

3. Procedure and Determination. Exchange staff shall determine whether any member of the deliberating body is subject to a conflicts restriction under this paragraph B. Such determination shall be based upon a review of the following information:

  - b. any other source of information that is held by and reasonably available to the Exchange.

C. Financial Interest in a Significant Action Conflict

1. Prohibition. 2. Disclosure. Prior to consideration of any significant action, each member of the deliberating body who does not choose to abstain from deliberations and voting shall disclose to the Department of Audits and Investigations position information that is known to such member, with respect to any particular month or months that are under consideration, and any other positions which the deliberating body reasonably expects could be affected by the significant action, as follows:

  - e. any other types of positions, whether maintained at the Exchange or elsewhere, held in the member’s personal accounts or the proprietary accounts of the member’s affiliated firm, that reasonably could be affected by the significant action.
3. Procedure and Determination. Exchange staff shall determine whether any member of the deliberating body is subject to a conflicts restriction under this paragraph C. based upon a review of the most recent large trader reports and clearing records available to the Exchange, information provided by the member with respect to positions pursuant to paragraph C.2. of this Bylaw, and any other source of information that is held by and reasonably available to the Exchange, taking into consideration the exigency of the significant action being contemplated.

D. Deliberation Exemption.

1. Any member of a governing board who would otherwise be required to abstain from deliberations and voting pursuant to paragraph C. hereof may participate in deliberations, but not voting, if the deliberating body, after considering the factors specified below, determines that such participation would be consistent with the public interest; provided, however, that before reaching any such determination the deliberating body shall fully consider the position information specified in paragraph C.2. and C.3. above, which is the basis for such member’s substantial financial interest in the significant action that is being contemplated.
2. In making its determination, the deliberating body shall consider;
  - a. whether the member’s participation in deliberations is necessary to achieve a quorum; and
  - b. whether the member has unique or special expertise, knowledge or experience in the matter being considered.

3. Voting Exemption. If at least one-half of the deliberating members cannot participate in voting consistent with this Bylaw, then every member who has been granted a deliberation exemption pursuant to this paragraph D. may participate in voting.
- E. Documentation. The minutes of any meeting to which the conflicts determination procedures set forth in this Bylaw apply, shall reflect the following information:
1. the names of all members who attended the meeting in person or who otherwise were present by electronic means;
  2. the name of any member who voluntarily recused himself or herself or was required to abstain from deliberations and/or voting on a matter and the reason for the refusal or abstention, if stated;

At such meeting the Board of Directors shall examine all claims for liens against the Membership that have been duly filed and shall hear fully all claimants and the Record Owner, if they shall appear. If more than one Membership is to be sold at any one meeting of the Record Owners, the order in which such Memberships shall be offered for sale shall be determined by lot.

After such sale, the former Record Owner of such Membership shall be deemed to have forfeited and relinquished the rights, benefits and privileges conferred by such Membership, and all rights, title and interest in and to such Membership.
